Introduction

The Pre-Training Review ensures that VIT:

- 1. Understand your objectives for undertaking the qualification(s)
- 2. Explores your current competencies and provides opportunities for these to be assessed through Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), Recognition of Current Competency (RCC) or Credit Transfer (CT)
- 3. Ascertain the most suitable qualification(s) for you to enrol based on your current educational attainment, capabilities including language, literacy and numeracy, aspirations and interests
- 4. Determines your training and assessment needs

Note: This form is Part A of a two part selection process to ensure enrolment in to the most appropriate qualification(s). Part B (including language, literacy and numeracy assessment) will be completed by the Trainer prior to the commencement of your training, to finalise your suitability in to your chosen qualification(s).

Skills Recognition

If you have already completed equivalent units of competency then you may be granted a 'Credit Transfer' for those units. You are required to present your evidence (usually a certificate and or statement of attainment).

6. Do you wish to apply for 'Credit Transfer'? Yes No

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) or Recognition of Current Competencies (RCC) is an assessment process that recognises the skills and knowledge you have already gained. If you have completed other courses, if you have relevant work experience and work-based training or life experience, you may be able to apply for credit for some or all of the units in the qualification(s) you are applying for. Please attach copies of supporting documents.

7. Do you wish to apply for RPL? Yes No

(The Trainer or Course Coordinator will explain the RPL process and the documents required as evidence for your claim – in general you must supply supporting evidence which may include your resume, work references, position description or duty statement)
