

Study Skills

Academic skills are an important part of your learning process and range from areas such as writing a report to time management.

Your teacher will always be able to provide you guidance with your academic skills, however for in-depth clarification, please refer to the links below:

1. <https://student.unsw.edu.au/skills>
2. <http://www.lib.uts.edu.au/help/study-skills>
3. <http://www.monash.edu.au/students/study/index.html>
4. <http://emedia.rmit.edu.au/learninglab/content/study-skills>
5. <http://www.swinburne.edu.au/student/study-help/las.html>
6. <http://www.uow.edu.au/student/matureage/skills/index.html>
7. <http://www.library.usyd.edu.au/skills/>
8. http://students.mq.edu.au/support/learning\_skills/additional\_resources/academic\_skills\_quickguides/

Along with the above webpages click link below for YouTube Study Skills clips:
https://www.youtube.com/results?search\_query=academic+skills+unimelb